Choice of workshops

The Festival includes participation in two workshops, morning and afternoon. Please indicate in the column(s) below your choice of workshop preferences by number, 1 being your first choice, 2 your second choice, with 3 and 4 as reserve choices. For any additional members of your party, write their name at the top of the columns on the right, and number preferences.

Workshop Title	Presenter	Description	Your choices
COLOURS OF GOD	Christine Dodd	Use colour to explore many images of God and what they mean for us (you do not have to be good at art!)
ISAIAH AND THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT	Timothy Swinglehurst	Explore the joy of receiving and living our lives in the wonderful gifts we received from God at Confirmation for the service of Christ.
WHERE DID HE APPEAR?	Michael T. Winstanley	Exploring historical, literary and theological aspects of the Resurrection Narratives.
LECTIO DIVINA	Johan Bergström-Allen	The theory and practice of praying with the Bible in a slow and reflective way.
MARY IN THE GOSPELS	Chris Maunder	A reverential but also intellectually honest review of what we know about Mary the mother of Jesus.
PSALMS, HYMNS AND INSPIRED SONGS	Greg Ryan	This workshop explores these questions through a selection of biblical passages, well-known hymns and more recent Christian music.
CREATING BIBLE DRAMA Workshop Session 1 (a.m. only)	F. Mary Callan (Blazing Grannies)	Bible drama can reach unreachable audiences. How does it help us learn and grow, and then share what we are learning?
CRADLING THE HEARTACHE Workshop Session 2 (p.m. only)	F. Mary Callan (Blazing Grannies)	Using Bible stories in therapy and counselling, to address modern day problems. God has seen it all before! Bible stories can open up a flood of grace into broken lives.
WORD ON THE GO	Fleur Dorrell	How can busy Catholics make Scripture part of their daily life without it being time-consuming or heavy going? This workshop looks at a new resource that does exactly that!
SCRIPTURE AND FAMILIES	Caroline Dollard	An overview of a new resource, Counting our Blessings , and a taster of its gentle process, a conversation about things that matter.
PROMPTING PRAYER WITH SCRIPTURE	Kathryn Turner	Prayer Stations are a simple way of bringing scripture to people – encouraging them to engage with short passages in ways that bring them to life in new ways. Look at existing Stations and, hopefully, be inspired to create your own!
ART AND SCRIPTURE	John Ryan	Looking at paintings of the Annunciation to explore theology and scriptural understanding.
